Welcome to Worship at Immanuel

Pastor Kevin Muyskens

November 8, 2020

Morning Worship: This morning we welcome Rev. Steve Breen to our pulpit. Pastor Steve is semi-retired and currently serves on the staff of First Reformed Church in Sioux Center with primary responsibilities for pastoral care. He will be preaching from the book of Nehemiah, where it shows Nehemiah as a leader in a multitude of ways. He modeled wise planning and bold execution of those plans. He was both resourceful and prayerful, inspiring the people of Jerusalem to take on a most intimidating task. While others saw trouble on all sides, Nehemiah saw the strong arm of God graciously empowering his people. That is the same dependable and divine resource that we can draw upon as we face life's troubling challenges.

The worship service will be presented at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at our host site: <http://immanuelsheldon.online.church>. It will be posted for later viewing first on Pastor Kevin's youtube page, and by Tuesday on our church website, <http://immanuelsheldon.com/> under the Connections tab.

Evening Worship: Broken relationships--we all know how painful they can be. Christians are not immune from those sharp conflicts born of hurtful words and actions--sometimes of our very own doing. The precious Biblical gem that is the book of Philemon outlines St. Paul's guidance for rebuilding a severed relationship between two Christian men. Instead of complaining about being "stuck in the middle", the apostle shows us how mediation and spiritual encouragement has amazing transformative impact to bring about reconciliation. Tonight's message uses the theme of Romans 15:7 to teach in a little different style.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Children & Worship will dismiss this morning. The lesson will be "Hezekiah – Judah's Faithful King". All children age three through kindergarten are welcome.

Baptism: Next Sunday morning we will witness and participate in the baptism of Luka Richard Gesink, infant son of Joel and Jessica. We will welcome him into the Immanuel family and promise our support to his parents in raising him to know, love, and serve our Lord Jesus.

Michelle's Orphans: Happy birthday to some of Michelle's Orphans—54 of them! Hooded sweatshirts are being collected until Sunday, November 29, and Michelle and her team will distribute them to her young orphan friends on their 2021 birthdays.

Take tags from the display on the Connections table. Be sure to write your name on the matching line on the list lying on the table. Save the tag and pin it to the sweatshirt when you return it.

Feed the Fish: We will be offering orange "Peter Fish" banks to families who would like to take them home and "feed" for the next two weeks. Take home a fish today (or as many as you want to feed) and join the effort of World Renew's World Hunger campaign to work with our hungry brothers and sisters worldwide. This year's theme "Every Table" emphasizes our God, the provider, who gives us food for the body and food for the spirit. He has a place for all of us at His table.

Coats for Kids: Bubbles and the Sheldon Ministerial are again sponsoring Coats for Kids. This year we have the opportunity to host the distribution as the coats will be distributed from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 14 here at Immanuel

PRAYER PRAISES & CONCERNS:

Praise the LORD Wilma De Boer was able to celebrate her 95th birthday on Tuesday. If you didn't get a card to her yet, she'll still appreciate it.

Back to God Ministries recently shared this: A family recently shared that a radio sermon helped a soldier named John Navis while he was fighting in the Vietnam War. As we commemorate Veteran's Day, thank God for his faithfulness despite the trauma of war. Thank God for all of the older (radio) and newer (podcasts) forms of spreading God's Word to the ends of the earth.
