We are The Church: Putting God on Display in A Broken Culture

Dates/Times: Friday, March 11, 6:30-9:00 p.m. EST, and Saturday, March 12, 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. EST

At the heart of the Christian walk is the Scripture, the Text. Ray Vander Laan, perhaps as much as any modern scholar or teacher, has helped people reengage with the Scripture in new and fresh ways. His teaching will help you understand the Hebrew way of thinking, the cultural context, and the amazing cross-referencing that goes on from Genesis to Revelation.

That's why Love INC National is eager to bring Ray Vander Laan back to the Love INC family via livestream for "We are the Church: Putting God on Display in a Broken Culture". Together, we'll look at the Church in post-pandemic America and the crucial questions it's asking: Who are we? How do we respond to a broken world? What is our mission? Ray Vander Laan will explore these and other questions considering the Bible and its cultural context.

The cost is FREE. Register at

From the Dordt University Music Department:

- The Dordt University Wind Symphony invites you to a concert at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, March 18 at the B.J. Haan Auditorium. This free concert is part of a spring tour with performances scheduled in Missouri, New Mexico, California, Colorado and Iowa. Under the baton of Associate Professor and Director of Instrumental Studies Dr. Onsby C. Rose, the Wind Symphony will perform a wide variety of repertoire. Featured soloist will be Ms. Janna Vanden Brink on flute performing the Chaminade Concertino for Flute. Other program highlights include the music of Gustav Holst, John Mackey, Steven Bryant, Frank Ticheli, and Percy Grainger. The ensemble will conclude their concert with the final movement of Dr. Rose's Symphony No. 1 – IV. For the Fallen as well as John Phillip Sousa's The Stars and Stripes Forever. The concert will also be livestreamed at www.dordt.edu/livestream.

Paul's Missionary Journeys in Turkey & the Seven Churches of Revelation (May 23 – June 4, 2022):

Travel to ancient sites in Turkey connected with Paul's First, Second and Third Missionary Journeys, and also the seven churches of Revelation. Added to these magnificent biblical sites is a visit to the spectacular region of Cappadocia. Contact Dr. Jeff Weima, Professor at Calvin Theological Seminary and leading biblical scholar, at weimje@calvinseminary.edu or 616-328-3110.
