Welcome to Worship at Immanuel

Pastor Kevin Muyskens

October 9, 2022

Morning Worship: This morning we will return to the worship gathering among the Christians in Corinth. 1 Corinthians provides a great deal of insight into their worship because the Apostle Paul is correcting problems that had arisen. The problem in today's scripture is worship had become about individual displays and actions that did not include or build up the rest of the worshipers. This serves as a reminder that we worship together as a body, not a collection of individuals, and that our worship is to be both glorifying to God and enriching to those in attendance.

The worship service will be presented at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at our host site:
<http://immanuelsheldon.online.church>. It will be posted for later viewing on the Immanuel Church of Sheldon Iowa YouTube page and on our church website,
<http://immanuelsheldon.com/>.

Evening Worship: This evening Pastor Kevin will continue leading us through the beginning of Romans. Romans 1:8-17 speak of Paul's longing to visit Rome to share the gospel, "because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes." Some of the interest of this passage is that it presents Paul's emotions of hope, longing, disappointment, and confidence, all of which are seen in the light of the gospel of Jesus. This passage will help us see our own actions and emotions in the light of that most important truth.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This morning we celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is a God-given action that displays the truth of Jesus' mission for us in a physical, acted out manner. In the Lord's Supper we proclaim Jesus' death as our only way to receive eternal life, so we ask that all who participate have publicly proclaimed their faith in Jesus as Savior and Lord through a profession of faith, confirmation, or believer's baptism. The supper is also a God-given means of grace by which God passes on to us the blessings of Jesus Christ. All communion elements are gluten-free.

Immanuel's 50th Anniversary celebration will be held next Sunday, October 16.

- ❖ We will have an extended morning service with former pastors participating.
- ❖ Children & Worship will dismiss after the children's message, and Sunday school will dismiss after the sermon.
- ❖ There will be social time with refreshments after the service and lunch will be provided. Immanuel members, we would like you to bring a large side dish, because we want visitors to feel free to stay for lunch.
- ❖ We will not have an evening service next week.
- ❖ Pastor Kevin will host an open house with Pastor Peter Holwerda, Pastor Bernie Haan, and Pastor Randy Bergsma at the Muyskens' home (615 Prairie Trail Rd) from 6:00-8:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 15.

Small Groups: The fourth small group sermon (second for session 3) and material for the third session are available today. The third session covers last week's sermon and today's sermon. Material for the first three sessions can still be found in the church mailboxes at the bottom of the "A" column.

Apple Pie Project is getting closer! This year's project will take place October 19-22. Pies will be sold for $16. Apple pie order forms may be found on the Connections table. Completed orders with payment may be dropped off in the box on the Connections table or mailed to church (PO Box 114, Sheldon IA 51201). For online orders go to: <https://tinyurl.com/bestapplepies>.

Come and visit the library! We've organized the books into sections to make it easier to find what you need. Our library has several series of books by favorite authors, such as Karen Kingsbury and Max Lucado. Please sign your name on the card inside the book and leave the card on the table. Also, there are a lot of cards not attached to books. Please bring in any books that have been resting at home.

Coats for Kids is happening again this fall. Gently used or new coats may be dropped off at Top Notch Stitching from October 17 to November 14. Please indicate if your coats are new so they are not cleaned. Distribution will be Saturday, November 19.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Next Sunday is the International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church. Please take a moment this week to search out some information on the challenges facing various groups of Christians across the globe. We will include time in our service for us to individually speak to God about these concerns.

Michelle Maly was able to attend a summit of the Christian Alliance for Orphans in Atlanta. Pray that this would be encouraging for her and that she will make valuable connections for her continuing work. She is also hoping to make a trip to Europe to visit kids, teammates, and friends from Odessa who are now in other countries (than Ukraine). Let us continue to pray for Michelle, for those evacuated from Ukraine, and for those who have remained in that war-torn nation.

Pray for Steve & Frankie Wunderink as they continue their mission in Cairo and beyond. Pray for Steve as he works in leadership development among pastors and other church leaders throughout Egypt and beyond. Pray for Frankie as she teaches English, counsels pastors, and ministers to young female workers in Cairo.

Vida en Abundancia continues to provide academic, medical, nutritional and spiritual support to their impoverished community in Jalapa, Mexico. Pray for them as they continue to seek an executive director. Pray also for their programs helping parents to provide a better home life and learning atmosphere for their children.
