Welcome to Worship at Immanuel

REV. KEVIN MUYSKENS

July 26, 2026

Morning Worship: Nobody likes to be vulnerable. Yet we cannot make deep connections without allowing it. The Bible calls Christians into authentic, vulnerable community and not to mask our needs, quirks, and imperfections. Jesus prays that all of us may be one and that we will be brought to complete unity to let the world know Jesus was sent by the Father. James calls us to confess our sins to one another. Paul describes the church as a body, while Peter and Paul both describe it as a living temple for the Holy Spirit. All of these things only come with true, authentic community.

Evening Worship: God does everything for a purpose. What is His purpose in so many Jews rejecting Jesus as Messiah? It was not to be finished with the Jews, but rather to bring salvation to people outside of ethnic Israel. In that manner the salvation of Gentiles also has a greater purpose: that the Jews would become jealous of the benefits they see Christians experiencing and want to get in on the benefits themselves. God's plans are beyond our understanding, but we know that he will bring to himself those who he has chosen to save.

Thank you, church family, for all the love, support and prayers that you have shown to me after my accident. My recovery is going well, and I am so thankful to be a part of such an AMAZING church!!! I can't wait until I can do cartwheels again!

Love, Jane Hamill

Prayer Praises & Concerns

Pray for Deb (Mart) Peters who injured her leg this week. Original tests were inconclusive, so she is currently in a boot with further examination to come. Pray that she would be spared much pain and that her leg would heal swiftly and completely.

Melissa Wiersma was admitted to the hospital Tuesday with another bout of A-fib. They were able to control it with medication so that she was able to return home on Wednesday. Pray for Melissa that effective long-term answers to this issue will be found.

Please keep Kurt Van Noord in your prayers Thursday, July 30 as he has another surgery in Sioux Falls to remove skin cancer from his arm and chest as well as a hernia repair. Pray for cancerous skin will be able to be removed without having to skin graft, that there won't be a need to have a wound vac, and that his heart does not go into A-fib.
