WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT IMMANUEL

PASTOR KEVIN MUYSKENS

May 18, 2025

Morning Worship: This morning Dr. John Hartog, president of Northwest Iowa Community College, will be preaching for us. He will focus on Psalm 62 which is a favorite of many. The Psalm begins, "My soul finds rest in God alone." In writing this Psalm the writer, credited as King David, notes that his enemies are attempting to topple him from his place. Whatever our precarious place – whether facing enemies or physical afflictions or spiritual battles – the LORD is our fortress, our rock, our salvation.

Evening Worship: This evening Dr. Hartog will focus on the final four verses of Psalm 62. What is the character of the LORD our God that encourages us to trust him as our rock and our salvation? Verses 11 & 12 provide a saying or a proverb that summarize the truth of the Psalm: the LORD our God is strong, and the LORD is loving.

From the Lighthouse Finance Committee: We have exciting news to share so please attend the congregational meeting for an update from the Lighthouse finance committee and building committee.

Communion: Next Sunday we will celebrate the Lord's Supper together. This sacrament is a declaration of faith and community. Please examine yourself as you prepare for next Sunday's worship.

Summer Mission Trips: An email was sent out this past week to those who expressed interest in one or both of the weekends to Iowa speedway. There was a link to an informational video from a past ministry speedway experience to help explain some of the details of the weekend. A link was also provided for you to sign up to serve at the racetrack. Please sign up by June 1. Please talk to Kurt if you have questions on how to get involved, even if you are unable to attend.

Church Dedication: The members of Bethel Reformed Church Sheldon cordially invite you to join them for the dedication service of Bethel's new ministry facility, 711 6th Ave. Sheldon, IA, today at 2:00 p.m. Light refreshments will be served following the service.

PRAYER PRAISES & CONCERNS

Please be in prayer for Cort and Trudy Victoria. Trudy has been in Sanford in Sioux Falls for about two weeks as doctors seek to figure out the cause and treatment of a severe pain in her leg. Additionally, just over a week ago, Cort fractured his ankle, underwent surgery, and has been in a swing bed in Sanford, Sheldon in an attempt to aid his recovery and allow him to return home. Pray for healing for both and for peace as they face some unknowns ahead of them.

Prayer for Graduates: In your mailboxes you will find a sheet with graduates for you to use as a prayer guide for individuals who are entering new chapters of their lives. Extra copies are on the Connections table.
