Welcome to Worship at Immanuel

Pastor Kevin Muyskens

November 6, 2022

Morning Worship: "Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice." This is Paul's call to worship in Romans 12, after he has told his readers the good news of Jesus' love and gift of eternal life. In response we are to offer our whole selves in worship – not only participating in worship gatherings or private praise, but every part of life is to be offered in worship to magnify the LORD.

The worship service will be presented at 9:30 a.m. Sunday at our host site: <http://immanuelsheldon.online.church>. It will be posted for later viewing on the Immanuel Church of Sheldon Iowa YouTube page and on our church website, <http://immanuelsheldon.com/>.

Evening Worship: In the second half of Romans 2, the Apostle Paul addresses those who have all the advantages of growing up knowing God's Word and as a part of a covenant people. He challenges his readers and us to make sure that our religion does not consist only of outward actions and ceremonies but that it affects our hearts. We are truly God's people only when we let the Word and work of God transform our hearts.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Professions of Faith: This morning we have the privilege to witness the public professions of faith of David Wiersma and Elijah Schreurs. Praise God for his work in the lives of these young men. Pray that this step will mark a milestone of growth in their lives of faithfully following Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Children & Worship will dismiss the morning service. The lesson will be "The Baby Moses". All children ages three through kindergarten are welcome!

Small Groups: Session five will covers the message from last week and this week. Leader's material for this and previous lessons can be found in the church mail boxes under the 'A' column.

The Giving Tree is set up on the Connections table! Each of the red tags is a gift for someone specific who is connected to Love INC. Please take a tag, sign your name on the red sheet, and return it with the unwrapped gift by November 30.

Church Visitors: At their meeting this Wednesday the council will receive church visitors from Classis Heartland. If individual members have items to bring to the attention of the church visitors you are invited to contact Rev. Sam Keyzer at the Northern Lighthouse in Lincoln, NE or Rev. Chad Van Ginkel at Prairie Lane CRC in Omaha, NE.

Youth Group and NCC's Bible Study are looking for volunteers to provide snacks for 15-20 people. Please sign up on the Community Connections table.

Coats for Kids is happening again this fall. Gently used or new coats may be dropped off at Top Notch Stitching through November 14. Please indicate if your coats are new so they are not cleaned. Distribution will be Saturday, November 19.

Prayer Praises & Concerns

Today is the International Day of Prayer for the Persecuted Church:

According to Forbes, 1 in 7 Christians in the world today face persecution and discrimination. "Across 76 countries, more than 360 million Christians suffer high levels of persecution and discrimination for their faith – an increase of 20 million since last year." In church mailboxes today are bookmarks to remind us to pray and a postcard to send if you would like to receive a prayer guide. Top countries include Afghanistan and North Korea. We will be praying for these sisters and brothers in Christ in worship today. If you have opportunity, read about some of these situations and add your thoughts to our prayer this morning.

Don Damstra was to have a pacemaker placed Thursday afternoon. Pray that this intervention will serve him well and correct the heart-related symptoms he has been experiencing.

Robin Haack fell and broke bones in her upper arm/shoulder on Tuesday. She is awaiting consultation with the orthopedic surgeon on Thursday. Pray for her patience as she deals with the various limitations and pains that come with this injury. Pray also that the pain will lessen and that her bones and joint will heal completely.

Eric Wiersma also broke his arm on Tuesday. Pray for timely and complete healing for Eric and that he will be able to keep up with his schoolwork while he heals.
